

Recruitment Process Outsourcing

It's not about filling seats – it's about meeting missions.

Whether your mission is to deliver a five-star customer experience, build new technology or deliver life-saving care, you need the right talent acquisition partner by your side to make your mission a reality.

Which RPO Model Is Right For You?

Attract, source, screen, match, coordinate, improve – end-to-end or where you need us, AGS Managed Services is flexible in our approach, so you don't have to be flexible on quality. Our Recruitment Process Outsourcing (RPO) solutions help you unlock human potential and drive outcomes by designing a workforce built for impact.

Enterprise

Complete, end-to-end RPO solution that can include every step of your recruitment process from workforce planning to a new hire's first day. As recruiting experts, we're equipped with the expertise, technology and methodology to simplify, modernize and, ultimately, transform the way you hire talent.

Select

Focused, customized, modular support to take your talent acquisition to the next level. Attraction, sourcing, screening, matching, coordination, marketing, advisory – select where you want to tap into our recruitment engine and expertise to achieve gains in productivity, quality and/or cost savings while maintaining a seamless candidate and hiring manager experience.

Project

Targeted, short-term recruitment support to scale or accelerate talent acquisition without compromising quality or experience. New markets, niche roles, seasonal or high-volume, our unmatched executional agility enables you to achieve your desired timeline and budget.

Why AGS?
